SUBJECT:

Invitation to DCI from The Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation

The Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation has invited the DCI to speak at a Conference for their Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit. I believe it would be inappropriate for Mr. Casey to accept or for CIA to send any other speaker. Attached is a copy of the invitation and my decline.

Dear Mr. Ruxlow and Mr. McDonald:

Thank you for inviting Director Casey, for whom I am responding, to the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation's Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit Meeting.

Mr. Casey believes that it would be inappropriate for him or another CIA official to address your Conference since the Agency has no law enforcement responsibilities and its domestic activities are circumscribed. The FBI has primary responsibility for domestic counter-intelligence and perhaps they will be able to help you.

We do, however, wish your meeting and members all success.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs

Mr. William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation is hosting the Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit (LEIU) Central/Bi-Zone Meeting in September, 1984 in Des Moines, Iowa.

Numerous local and state law enforcement agencies who have units devoted to the Intelligence function will be in attendance.

Based on your position and expertise in the Intelligence field, we are requesting your presence as a keynote speaker to set the tone for the seminar.

More specifically, we are requesting your presence on Wednesday, September 27, 1984 at the Des Moines Downtown Marriott for this Intelligence Seminar. If this date does not meet with your schedule, we would appreciate another representative from the Central Intelligence Agency as a keynote speaker.

We feel a one-hour presentation on the important function of Intelligence gathering would be appropriate for this audience.

We are requesting a response as soon as possible in order to finalize the agenda for this seminar.

Assuring you of our cooperation in matters of mutual interest.

Sincerely,

THOMAS R RUXLOW, Director
Division of Criminal Investigation
